

HELEN CROCKETT

1931-2010

BRIDGEPORT: Helen Crockett, 79, of Bridgeport died on November 10, 2010, after a lengthy battle with pulmonary fibrosis.

Born Helen Louise Moore, November 4, 1931, in Roxton, Texas to J.T. and Grace Moore, Helen and family moved to Bridgeport in 1953. Warmly received by the community, the family soon became active members of Pleasant View Baptist Church in Bridgeport, where Helen remained until her death.

Helen was a devoted homemaker, an excellent seamstress, and delighted in being outdoors working in her lawn or garden. She loved her husband and children, but few things brought her greater joy than her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Helen loved to travel, and after her husband's retirement they were able to tour the country. She enjoyed planning the trips almost as much as she did taking the trips.

She is survived by her husband of 37 years, Bearl G. Crockett of Bridgeport; children: Louie Alton and wife, Mary Raines of Whitesboro, daughter, Derinda and husband, Steve Darilek of Bridgeport, and stepson, Charles Crockett of Crowley; grandchildren: Candace Raines, Landon and wife, Alycia Darilek, and Denea and husband, Jake Griggs; and five great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by parents, J.T and Grace Moore, brothers, Raymond Moore, Lloyd Moore, and Jimmy Don Moore; stepson, Garry Crockett, and grandson, Leslie Raines.

Services were held at 2:00 pm, Monday, November 15, 2010, at Pleasant View Baptist Church, with burial at Thomas Cemetery. Bro. Gary Demmitt officiated.
