

Combs, Lucy Lee | 1916-2011

Published Sunday, September 11, 2011

Graveside service for Lucy Lee Combs, 95, of Burkburnett, formerly of Wise County, is 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 17, at Oaklawn Cemetery in Decatur.

Combs died Sunday, Sept. 4, 2011, in Wichita Falls.

Born Feb. 20, 1916, near Sycamore to Samuel C. and Lou E. (Madden) Mann, her family moved to Decatur when she was a teenager. She graduated from Decatur High School and was a member of the former Fundamental Baptist Church.

In 1938, she moved to Kamay and worked as a cafe cook. In 1965, she moved to Burkburnett and worked as a seamstress until her retirement in 1981. She read and did needlework.

Combs was preceded in death by son Billy D. Combs, two brothers and a sister.

She is survived by grandson Bill Combs of Burkburnett; granddaughter Kathy Combs of Ryan, Okla.; seven great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and extended family