

Cox, Lexie Mae | 1914-2011

Published Saturday, November 5, 2011

Funeral for Lexie Mae Cox, 97, of Decatur is 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 6, at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home with the Rev. Bill Cleveland officiating. Burial will follow at Chico Cemetery. Cox died Friday, Nov. 4, 2011, in Decatur. Born Aug. 21, 1914, in Wise County to Ben Lincoln and Leanna (Thorp) Peyton, she married E.T. Cox May 21, 1932, in Waurika, Okla. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Alvord and a homemaker. Cox was preceded in death by her husband in 1971 and her son, Ben Cox Jr. She is survived by grandson Brad Cox and wife, Kim; granddaughter Kaylah Johnson and husband, Jef; great-grandchildren Shay Cox, Kendra Morgan, J.L. Johnson and Bradley Johnson; and great-great-grandson Kalven Cox, all of Arlington. Pallbearers are Dwain Jones, Melton Neighbors, Walter Bull, Jay Houston, David Goodwin and Larry Nivens.