

Ellison, Jamie | 1952-2011

Published Thursday, June 30, 2011

Funeral for Jamie Ellison, 58, of Runaway Bay was June 28 at Runaway Bay Community Church with the Rev. Ollin Collins officiating. Graveside service was to be Wednesday, June 29, at Glen Rest Cemetery in Big Lake. Mike Elkins was to officiate with Buddy Helms assisting. Family was to receive friends at the VFW Hall in Big Lake following the graveside service.

Ellison died Saturday, June 25, 2011, in Decatur.

Born Nov. 14, 1952, in San Angelo to Oma and Deenie (Wright) Ellison, he married Marsha Proffitt Aug. 22, 1970, in Big Lake. He was a self-employed contract pumper and a member of Runaway Bay Community Church.

He was preceded in death by son Jason Beryl Ellison; and brother Gaylon Ellison.

He is survived by his wife; sons Jeramie Ellison and wife, Lynae, of Dallas, and Jefferie Ellison and wife, Kala, of Arlington; grandchildren Travis, Aley, Charlie and Joss; sisters Patsy Pope and husband, Billy, of Comanche, Carolyn Drennan and husband, Wayne, of San Angelo, and Linda Low and husband, Wayne, of Sterling City; and nieces, nephews and cousins.

Donations may be made to charities of choice.