

Williams, Jason | 1979-2011

Published Sunday, April 10, 2011

Funeral for Jason Williams, 31, of Nocona was April 8 at White Family Funeral Home in Bowie with Robbie Bosley officiating. Burial followed at Elmwood Cemetery in Bowie. Williams died Monday, April 4, 2011, in Valley View.

Born Nov. 19, 1979, in Aurora, Colo., he graduated from Alvord High School in 1998 and attended Wyotech Automotive School. He worked for Vann Energy in Forestburg and was employed by Pat's Trucking in Bridgeport. He drew and had an interest in automotive paint and body work. He also watched his sister coach Forestburg Longhorn basketball games.

Williams was preceded in death by his father, Frank Williams.

He is survived by parents Ronnie and Brenda LaCour of Sunset; sister Sarah Williams of Nocona; brothers Tommy LaCour of Euless and Chance LaCour of Fort Worth; fianc e Fati Esparza and her daughter, Natalie Gomez of Forestburg; grandfathers Leabert LaCour of Oakwood and Arthur McClure of Bowie; and aunts, uncles and a niece.