

Cook, Harriett Lee Forman | 1921-2012

Published Saturday, May 12, 2012

Harriett Lee Forman Cook

Funeral for Harriett Lee Forman Cook, 90, of The Woodlands is 2 p.m. Saturday, June 2, at Ted Dickey Funeral Home in Plano with burial at Plano Mutual Cemetery.

Cook died Saturday, May 5, 2012, in The Woodlands.

Born Aug. 1, 1921, in Decatur to Ray Hugh and Eula Daughetee Forman, she graduated from Decatur High School and Texas State College for Women, now Texas Woman's University, in 1942. She worked at Humble Oil Co. and taught business classes at Robert E. Lee High School, both in Baytown, until moving to Waco where she taught at Connally High School until her retirement. Cook lived in The Woodlands for the last three years.

She was preceded in death by brothers Ray Hugh Forman Jr. and Joe M. Forman and his wife, LaVerne.

Cook is survived by sons Ray Holton Cook and wife, Carolyn, of The Woodlands and Donald Edward Cook of Covington, Ky.; brother Clint M. Forman of Waco; sisters Eugenia Forman of Denton; sister-in-law Kathleen Brown Forman of Denton; grandchildren Travis Cook of Atyrau, Kazakhstan, Allison Cook Milstead and husband, Greg, of Cumming, Ga., Hillary Cook of San Marcos and Connie Rodriguez Cook of Corpus Christi; and great-grandchildren Alyssa, Megan and Holton Milstead of Cumming and Isaac Saucedo and Brianna Saucedo of Corpus Christi.

Memorials may be made to a charity of choice.