

Williams, Bobby Carroll | 1934-2012

Published Saturday, December 15, 2012

Bobby Carroll Williams

Bobby Carroll Williams, 78, died Tuesday, Dec. 11, 2012, in Greenwood.

Funeral was Dec. 14 at First Baptist Church of Greenwood with the Rev. Tracy Epting officiating. Burial was at Greenwood Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dustin Wilson, Devin Wilson, Chace Williams, Shawn Hess, Jack Teague, John Teague and Jimmy Williams. Honorary pallbearers were David Caraway, Neal Fortenberry, Frank Maxwell, Dale Burks and Rodney Mote.

Bobby was born April 15, 1934, in Greenwood to Elmer Ellis and Flora Elizabeth (Myers) Williams. He married Georgia "Jo Ann" Coker on Dec. 19, 1953, in Corsicana. Bobby retired from Lockheed-Martin Aviation as a quality control supervisor after 26 years of service. He retired from the Army National Guard after 25 years of service.

Bobby was a 32nd degree Mason in the Greenwood Lodge No. 799 and a member of Greenwood Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife, JoAnn Williams of Greenwood; son Tim Williams and wife, Maggie, of Greenwood; daughter Kim Biggerstaff of Lake Kiowa; sister Sandy McCormick of Waco; grandchildren Dustin Wilson of Corinth, Chace Williams of Greenwood, Megan Williams of Muenster and Devin Wilson of Granbury; great-granddaughter Emma Grace Williams of Muenster; nephew Steven Young of Waco; and niece Julie Young Evans of Waco.