

Eddie Alexander | 1963-2014

Published Saturday, April 26, 2014

Eddie Alexander

Eddie Alexander, 51, of Springtown died Monday, April 21, 2014, in Fort Worth.

Funeral is 2:30 p.m. Saturday, May 3, at The Rock Church in Runaway Bay with the Rev. Tim Jenkins and Matt Edwards officiating. Burial will follow at Bluebonnet Hills Memorial Park in Colleyville.

Pallbearers will be Byron Dial, Bill Moore, Jason Satterfield, Todd Hasty, C.J. Daniel and Josh Brigham.

Eddie was born March 10, 1963, in Miami to Edson and Darlene (Petit) Alexander. He married Diana Daniel Nov. 28, 1992, in Euless. He was a buyer for Air Methods Corp. and a member of the The Rock Church in Runaway Bay, where he served as worship leader.

He was preceded in death by his father, Edson Alexander Sr.

Survivors include his wife of 21 years, Diana Alexander of Springtown; sons Daniel and Andrew Alexander of Springtown; his mother, Darlene Pogue and husband, Wayne, of Waxahachie; brothers Jeff Alexander and wife, Stephanie, of Bedford and Michael Alexander and wife, Alicia, of Granbury; sister Julie Miller and husband, Rick, of Krum; his grandmother, Dorothy Hickman and husband, Berl, of Ocala, Fla.; mother-in-law Janet Daniel of Bedford; father-in-law Bill Daniel of Haltom City; brother-in-law Paul Daniel of Bedford; aunt Robin Barkley and husband, Richard, of Ocala, Fla.; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Memorials may be made to The Rock Church in Runaway Bay or Faith Community Church in Paradise.