Robert Glen “Bob” Clark

Robert Glen “Bob” Clark, 82, a longtime worker with the Gideons in Decatur, died Saturday, Feb 8, 2014. Memorial service is 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 15, at Lucas Funeral Home in Hurst.

Bob was born Aug. 8, 1931, in Des Moines, Iowa, to Harlow and Lillian Clark, the first of three sons. He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force.

First and foremost, Bob was a Christian who loved the Lord with all his heart. He was a catastrophe insurance adjuster and worked all over the U.S. when there was a hurricane or other disaster. His purpose in life was to serve the Lord, his family and the policyholders who had suffered loss from disasters such as Hurricanes Andrew and Katrina.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents; brother Tommy; and granddaughter Jennifer Stephens. Survivors include his wife of 27 years, Flo Clark; sons Randall and Ronald; daughters Kristine deCastilho, Keri Vaughn, Kelli Stephens and Karla Alexander; grandchildren Craig, Joshua, Michaila, Danielle, Ary, Trinity, Thomas, Jason, Stephanie and Clayton; great-granddaughter Nevaeh; and brother Kenneth of Des Moines, Iowa.

Memorials may be made to the Salvation Army, Union Gospel Mission or Gideons International, P.O. Box 317, Decatur, TX 76234.
