

Billy H. Godbey | 1943-2014

Published Wednesday, April 30, 2014

Billy H. “Frog” Godbey, 71, died Saturday, April 26, 2014, at his home in Newark.

Funeral was April 29 at Biggers Funeral Chapel in Lake Worth. Burial followed at Aurora Cemetery.

Billy was born Jan. 30, 1943, in Fort Worth to Glen and Thelma Godbey. He was raised in Haslet and attended Northwest High School. Before his retirement, he was a shop foreman for J&L Tanks for more than 20 years.

Survivors include his wife, Charlotte Chapman; daughters Cindy Pockrus, Kim Hulsey and husband, David, and Lisa Durham and husband, Tiger; mother of his children, Leona Crain; stepchildren Curtis Hooks, Chris Hooks and Daniel Chapman and wife, Mary; mother Thelma Godbey; brothers Woody Godbey and wife, Regina, and Gabe Godbey and wife, Sandra; sisters Glenna Waggoner and husband, Kenneth, and Pam Warren and husband, Gerald; nine grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.