

Jimmy Arrington | 1944-2015

Published Wednesday, March 11, 2015

Jimmy Arrington

Jimmy Arrington, 70, of Bromide, Okla., died Friday, March 6, 2015, in Bonham.

Funeral was March 10 at Assembly of God Church in Rhome with the Rev. Rick Stokes officiating. Burial followed at Aurora Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Roger Lewis, Larry Lewis, Wesley Romine, Mark Romine and Clayborne Young. Honorary pallbearers were Billy Wilson, Wayne Young and Paul Arrington.

Jimmy was born Sept. 30, 1944, in Decatur to Ross and Minnie (Young) Arrington. He married Mari Ritton March 7, 1993, in Loveland, Colo., and was a proud veteran of the United States Navy. Jimmy was a past employee of Bell Helicopter and Farm Bureau Insurance Co. and a member of the Assembly of God Church.

Jimmy was preceded in death by his parents; and his brother, Tommy Arrington.

He is survived by his wife, Mari Arrington of Bromide; son Aaron Arrington and wife, Penny, of North Richland Hills; daughter Jana Labonte and husband, Ron, of Colorado; grandchildren Joshua Arrington, Ashley Arrington, Madison Arrington and Mackenzie Arrington and Meagan Hatfield and husband, Chris; great-grandchildren Kinley and Mason Hatfield; sister Billy Romine and husband, Oscar, of Rhome; sister-in-law Nancy Arrington of Rhome; and other family members and friends.