Alvin Kenneth Brammer

Alvin Kenneth Brammer, 93, died Wednesday, Feb. 4, 2015, in Decatur.

Graveside service was Feb. 6 at Aurora Cemetery with Gerre Joiner officiating. Arrangements were handled by Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home of Decatur.

Kenneth was born July 16, 1921, to Walter and Alice (Nesmith) Brammer in Rhome, where he spent most of his life on the home place. He retired from Lockheed (formerly General Dynamics) after 35 years of service. Kenneth was a member of the First Baptist Church of Rhome.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Melba Thomas Brammer; sister Ruth Harlen Frye; and dear friend, Betty Specht.

Survivors include his brother, Billy Ray Brammer of Benbrook; sister Gloria Ann Dustman of Santa Fe; and his loving nieces and nephews.

The family wishes to thank Ronnie Moore, Kenneth's dear friend and neighbor, for caring for him in his final years.
