Edith Ann Cage, 77, died Tuesday, March 3, 2015, in Bowie.

Memorial service is 11 a.m. Saturday, March 7, at the First Baptist Church in Alvord with burial at Pleasant Grove No. 3 Cemetery in Alvord. White Family Funeral Home in Bowie is handling arrangements.

Edith was born June 6, 1937, in Spearman, to Hershel and Mary (Dougherty) Ooley. She graduated from Spearman High School and was well known for playing basketball. Edith married Joe Cage Oct. 13, 1956, in Clayton, N.M. She was a secretary at Union Church in Spearman and also ran the cafeteria at Spearman High School for several years.

She and Joe lived in Spearman for 42 years before making their home in Bowie in 1996. Edith was multi-talented with her hands. She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, quilting and drawing artwork. She also enjoyed her First Baptist Church quilting Sunday school class and was a Sunday school superintendent there for several years.

Edith was preceded in death by her parents, Hershel and Mary Ooley.

She is survived by her husband, Joe Cage of Bowie; daughters Deborah Grimes and husband, Geary, of Hurst, and Margie Urban and husband, Paul, of Arlington; grandchildren Salina Johnson of Frisco, April Shipley of Bowie, Meredith Lee of Frisco, Rachel Faulkner of Arlington and Lindsay Cleveland of Colorado; and nine great-grandchildren.

She is also survived by brothers Jimmy Ooley of Spearman, Pat Ooley of California and Richard Ooley of Spearman; sisters Hershey Turner of Gruver and Marilee Bulls of Amarillo; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations may be made to the First Baptist Church of Alvord at P.O. Box 25, Alvord, TX 76225.
