

EVA ALIENE KNIGHT ELMORE

1921-2015

DECATUR: Eva Aliene Knight Elmore, 93, a homemaker, died Sunday, May 17, 2015 in Decatur.

Eva was born on July 12, 1921 to Thomas and Mrytle (Connely) Knight in Flower Mound. She was united in marriage to Rodney Elmore on February 14, 1970 in Grapevine. Eva was lifetime elder at Flower Mound Presbyterian Church. She retired from Vought Corporation.

She was preceded in death by her parents; an infant brother; sister, Tommie Pemberton; two great grandsons, Joshua and Jonathan Dykes.

Survivors include her husband of 45 years, Rodney Elmore of Decatur; her son, Fred Andrews of Granbury; her daughter, Beverly Kitchen of Lewisville; four grandsons: Mikel Wyatt of York, South Carolina; Greg Andrews of Greenberg, Pennsylvania; James Dykes of Bedford and John Andrews of Denton; one granddaughter, Lea Radabaugh of Lewisville; eight great grandchildren; four great-great- grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, May 20, 2015 at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel with burial at Flower Mound Cemetery.

Rev. Jerry Mill officiated. Pallbearers included Mikel Wyatt, John Andrews, Dustin Wyatt, Paden Tsakonas, Dakota Cox and Danny Radabaugh.

In lieu of flowers please send memorials to American Cancer Society at Wise County Unit P O Box 428 Decatur, Texas 76234.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, May 21, 2015