Tommy Lee Ford

Tommy Lee Ford, 65, of Spencer, Okla., died Monday, June 29, 2015.

Funeral is 10 a.m. Friday, July 3, at Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport with burial at Jonestown Cemetery.

Visitation is 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

Tommy was born April 9, 1950, in Decatur to Marvin Wallace and Velma Jean (Ham) Ford. He enjoyed watching NASCAR, playing guitar and listening to country music. He was a good pool player and could throw a dart as well. His favorite movie was "Tombstone," and he often enjoyed a shot of good whiskey with his "Huckleberry," his son by marriage, Mike.

Tommy was a cowboy at heart and like most cowboys, was very colorful. He was known for many sayings, but a favorite was, "If I tell you a duck can pull a truck, then hook it up!"

Tommy's favorite thing to do was spending time with his children and grandchildren. He loved life and knew how to enjoy it.

He was preceded in death by his father, Marvin Wallace Ford; brothers Marvin Ford, Joe Ford and Danny Ford.

Tommy is survived by his daughters, Tammy Lester and special "son" Mike Lester, Kristy Good and husband, Kevin, Cheyann Ford and Sara Ford; grandchildren Christopher Roper, Taylor Roper, Matthew Roop and Morgan Roop; great-granddaughter Bailey Roper; mother Velma Jean Ford; brother Jimmy Ford; sisters Wanda Trice, Katie Lovejoy and Paula Gillis; many nieces and nephews; and fur babies Raisin and Cain.
