

Krista Jane Shaw French | 1953-2015

Published Wednesday, January 28, 2015

Krista Jane Shaw French

Krista Jane Shaw French, 61, of Tucson, Ariz., died Friday, Jan. 23, 2015, in Tucson.

A celebration of her life is planned for Decatur at a later date.

Krista was born Nov. 20, 1953, in Fort Worth to the late Pete Shaw and Maxine Shaw DeBrie. She attended school in Decatur before moving to Tucson. She was married to Edwin Cooper French and was a member of the First Southern Baptist Church of Tucson.

She retired from American Airlines and enjoyed gardening, cooking and baking with her children and grandchildren, as well as antique shopping and anything to do with Christmas.

She is survived by her husband; sons Richard “Tony” Dewees and daughter, Hannah, and Eddie Dewees, his wife, Jessica, and daughters Taylor and Madison; daughters Meaghan French and Angela Zamparelli, her husband, William, and children Aidan and Noah; sisters Linda K. Stutt and husband, James, and Marsha Nieman and husband, Raye; her mother, Maxine Shaw DeBrie; parents-in-law Ed and Louise French of Orlando, Fla.; numerous other relatives and her beloved miniature dachshund family, Max, Baby, Bubbles, Sugar and Jojo.