Alvie Clarn Perkins Sr.

Alvie Clarn Perkins Sr., 84, died Tuesday, Oct. 13, 2015.

Funeral was Oct. 16 at the Boswell Church of Christ in Boswell, Okla., with burial at Sugar Creek Cemetery, north of Soper, Okla.

Alvie, affectionately known as Big Al, was born July 23, 1931, in Johnston County, Okla., to Arthur and Selma Perkins. He married Glenda Kay Jordan Nov. 12, 1958. They had three children – Tamra Jeanine, Alvie Jr. (Skip) and MaLinda Kay.

Alvie was a meat cutter by trade and a coon hunter by night. He retired after 45 years in the grocery business. He also retired from coon hunting to take up wolf hunting with his good friend, Wayne Holder.

He loved his family and friends, especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Alvie never met a stranger and enjoyed visiting with whomever crossed his path. He also had a huge heart for children.

Alvie is survived by his wife, Glenda; son Skip and wife, Julie, of Soper; daughters Tamra Cole and husband, Randy, of Boyd and MaLinda Perkins of Boyd; grandchildren Whitney Lamance and husband, Dusty, of Keeter, Jaelie Perkins of Checotah, Okla., and Sunshine Crittenden and husband, JR, of Fort Campbell, Ky.; and great-grandchildren Rendyn Clarn, Jett Ruel and Harper Macrae Lamance of Keeter and Trent Lane (JoJo) Crittenden of Fort Campbell. He is also survived by one brother, three sisters, and many nieces, nephews and friends.
