

Chase Lee Wiggins | 1987-2015

Published Wednesday, December 16, 2015

Chase Lee Wiggins, 28, died Sunday, Dec. 6, 2015.

Memorial service is 3 p.m. Friday, Dec. 18, in Biggers Funeral Chapel in Lake Worth.

Chase was born June 3, 1987. He grew up in Lake Worth and lived in Lakeside with his family. Chase worked in construction remodeling homes. Chase was a devoted father and enjoyed coaching his children in sports and cheering them on. He also enjoyed playing in recreational sporting teams in his free time.

Chase was preceded in death by his grandfather, James Coffey; and he died alongside his mother, Rosemary Hopkins.

He is survived by his wife, Priscilla and his children, Destiny and Tristian Wiggins; father, Brian Wiggins and his wife, Julie; brothers, Andrew and Bryson Wiggins; stepbrother, Gavin Sisk; stepsisters, Brianna and Kaliea Sisk; stepfather, Eric Hopkins; numerous grandparents; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.