

Tammie Dianne Crittenden | 1970-2016

Published Wednesday, February 10, 2016

Tags: Decatur

Tammie Dianne Crittenden

Tammie Dianne Crittenden, 45, died Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016, in Decatur.

Funeral is 11 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 11, at the Montague County Cowboy Church in Montague. Burial will follow at Montague Cemetery. Visitation is 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at White Family Funeral Home in Bowie.

Tammie was born Feb. 27, 1970, in Shreveport, La., to Benjamin and Dorless (Beshea) Murray. She graduated from Huntington High School in Shreveport, where she excelled in track and went to state. Tammie moved to North Texas where she worked at Wise Health System in Decatur for 18 years.

She married Daymon Crittenden Oct. 14, 2003. Tammie was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She was a caring and loving person who put others before herself. Tammie enjoyed going to her kids sporting events. She was an avid LSU and New Orleans Saints fan.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Benjamin and Dorless Murray; grandparents; and nephew Zachary Murrah. Tammie is survived by her husband, Daymon Crittenden of Alvord; children Benny Kyle Malone of Alvord, Deshea Woods and husband, Josh, of Muenster, Josh Malone of Alvord, Kyle Crittenden and wife, Meagan, of Noble, La., Kade Crittenden and wife, Kaitlyn of Alvord, Trent Crittenden of Cisco, Shelby Young of Alvord, Treigh Barnhill of Alvord and Seth Gifford of Alvord; grandchildren Brett Crittenden, Colt Crittenden, Blakelee Crittenden and one on the way (Eli Woods); brother Benjamin Murray of Bowie; sisters Lisa Read and husband, Poopie, of Bowie and Pam Pound of Bowie; special friends Carla Hartley and Glenette Lewis; and numerous nieces, nephews and co-workers at Wise Health System.