Douglas Alan Davis

Douglas Alan Davis, 76, of Newark, died Sunday, May 1, 2016, in Lake Worth.

A graveside service will be held this summer when family and friends can gather at Dido Cemetery. The date and time will be announced on Facebook.

Alan was born Sept. 18, 1939, in Dallas County to Bill and Lois (Thomas) Davis.

After serving in the Air Force, he was a volunteer fireman for the Haltom City Fire Department. He worked many years for Dr Pepper, and most recently used his carpenter skills and sales knowledge building small play houses and storage buildings.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and sisters Ann Hall and Carolyn Krebbs.

Alan is survived by his children, Michael Alan Davis, Melanie Alayne Childers, Martha Anette Cooper and wife, Gina, and Mark Adrian Davis, all of Springfield, Mo.; stepdaughter Cindy Reedy of Newark; grandchildren Nathan, Jennifer, Windy, Asa, Mark Jr., Jamie, Tandi and Leo; and step-grandson Christopher. He is also survived by great-grandchildren MacKayla, KayDee, Samuel, Kennedy, Chevelle, Arsen, Emily, Helayna and Aurin; step-great-grandson Dallas; great-great-grandchild Aurora; and sister Patricia Krebbs of Newark.

Alan was Uncle Butch to many nieces and other family members and a few friends and neighbors.
