

Martin Ross Dumke | 1946-2016

Published Saturday, April 2, 2016

Tags: Aurora

Martin Ross Dumke

Martin Ross Dumke, 69, of Aurora, died Tuesday, March 29, 2016, at home.

The memorial service will be private.

Ross was born May 31, 1946, in Fort Worth to Herman and Dorothy DuPriest Dumke. Ross was a retired technical engineer with Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport after 22 years of dedicated service, where he received several awards.

He was a HAM radio operator with a Federal Communications Commission license and member of the Wise County Storm Watchers Association. He was also a Mason.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Butch and Bill Dumke; and wife Diana Dumke.

Ross is survived by his wife of 13 years, Kasey Dumke; children Kathryn Lawler and husband, Lester, Tammy Lee and husband, David, Benjamin Dumke and wife, Amy, Dennis Dumke and wife, Erica, Daniel Webb and wife, Roxanna, Tricia A. Dratwick and husband, Jon and Robert Hickey; multiple foster daughters; sister-in-law Mary Beth Dumke; nephews Will and Robert Dumke; and numerous grandchildren and nephews, all of whom will miss him.