

Joyce Fae Duvall | 1956-2016

Published Wednesday, October 19, 2016

Tags: Alvord

Joyce Duvall

Joyce Fae Duvall, 60, of Alvord, died Thursday, Oct. 13, 2016, in Decatur.

A memorial service is pending at this time.

Joyce was born Aug. 7, 1956, in Borger to James Edmond and Thelma Mae (Hudson) Bullard. She married Edmond Lee Duvall May 10, 2002, in Decatur. They were married 10 years until he died in 2012. Joyce was a member of Alvord Assembly of God and was a retired pharmacy technician.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; brother Kenneth Bullard; and granddaughter Alexis Yelton.

She is survived by her son, Chris Duvall of Benbrook; daughters Jeanie Littrell and husband, Eddie, and Nikki Butler and husband, Jessie, all of Alvord; grandchildren Chase, Tyler and Dusty Littrell, Dakota and Brendon Yelton, Barbara Littrell and Jessie and Brian Butler; great-grandchild Elizabeth Dawson and another on the way; brothers Riley and Larry Verden; and numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.