Carole A. Narramore

Carole A. Narramore, 86, of Arlington, died Tuesday, July 26, 2016, in Arlington.

Funeral is 10 a.m. Monday, Aug. 1, at Moore Funeral Home, 1219 N. Davis Dr., in Arlington.

Visitation is 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home.

Carole was born May 26, 1930, in Ely, Nev., to Reed and Della Wright. She received a double degree from Brigham Young University.

She married the love of her life, Alfred D. Narramore Jan. 31, 1953. They lived in Arlington where they raised their four wonderful daughters. Carole had a 40-year career in title insurance and retired from Trinity-Western Title Co. in 1999.

After retiring, Carole taught and mentored knitting classes at Tarrant County College. She was a member of several bridge clubs and loved needlepoint. Carole enjoyed baking for local churches, the women's shelter and her many friends. Her love of food and cooking inspired her daughters to become excellent cooks and write a cookbook to memorialize their family recipes. Her loving, caring nature has been an inspiration for her family and friends.

Carole was preceded in death by her husband; her brother and sister-in-law, Jack and Sue Wright; and her parents. She is survived by her daughters, Victoria "Vicki" Vannatta and her husband, Jim, of Boyd, Kimberly Kinder and her husband, Bryan, of Fort Worth, Sherran Fear and her husband, Doug, of Mansfield and Melissa "Missy" Trubatisky and her husband, Steve, of Austin; 12 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.
