

Karen Bryant White | 1948-2016

Published Wednesday, August 3, 2016

Tags: Denton

Karen Bryant White

Karen Bryant White, 67, of Denton, died Sunday, July 31, 2016, at Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas.

Family graveside service was Aug. 2 at the Eastside Cemetery in Bridgeport.

A celebration of life will be held in the near future.

Karen was born Oct. 8, 1948, in Fort Worth to Dr. David and Mildred Bonner Bryant.

She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education from the University of Texas in Austin. Karen continued her education and completed her master's degree in early childhood education. She spent her career as a public school teacher specializing in early childhood development.

Karen was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Denton.

She was preceded in death by her father; and brother Dr. David Bryant II.

Karen is survived by her mother, Mildred Bryant of Denton; son Austin White and fianc e, Ana Martinez, of Lewisville; sister Cindy Elder and husband, William; nieces Allison Dickey and husband, Cullen, Lexie Aderhold and husband, Cullen; and great-nephews Warren Dickey and Tripp Aderhold, all of Dallas.

Memorial donations may be made to the Denton Animal Shelter, 3717 N. Elm St., Denton, TX 76207.