

Gwynella Frazier Young | 1942-2016

Published Saturday, September 24, 2016

Tags: Paradise

Gwynella Young

Gwynella Frazier Young, 74, of Bells, formerly of Paradise, died Tuesday, Sept.20, 2016, in Sherman.

Graveside service is 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24, at Paradise Cemetery.

Gwynella was born April 26, 1942, in Abilene to Willis Virgil and Ola Belle (McAfee) Frazier. She graduated from Paradise High School.

She married Plez Douglas Young Jan. 13, 2001, in Decatur and was a machinist for Poco Graphite for more than 20 years.

Gwynella was preceded in death by her parents; and grandsons Lynn and Travis Coomer.

She is survived by her husband; sons Wayne Coomer of Jacksboro and Geary Coomer and wife, Shelley, of Duncanville; stepsons Mike Young and wife, Marie, of Justin, Robert Young and wife, Angela, of Waco and Brian Young and wife Amber of Whitesboro; brothers Guy Frazier and wife, Gwyn, of Stratford, Okla., and James Frazier and wife, Elizabeth, of Cundiff; sisters Betty Jones of Savor and Jannette Campbell of Bells; 16 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.