Inez Bond

Inez LeVelle Fisher Bond, 90, of Bridgeport, died Thursday, March 16, 2017, in Chandler, Ariz.

LeVelle requested no funeral service. Her children will celebrate her life with a graveside service 1 p.m. Saturday, March 25, at East Bridgeport Cemetery.

Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport is handling arrangements.

LeVelle was born March 10, 1927, in Paradise to Iva Holt (Ritter) and John Rueben Fisher. She loved telling people she “was born in Paradise and has lived somewhere South ever since”.

LeVelle was a true Texan and lived a life she loved with humor and grit. She graduated from Bridgeport High School and Texas Woman’s University. She was married to Howard Bond for 25 years and had three children. LeVelle was a retired teacher.

Her fondest memories were of growing up in Wise County and spending time with her cousins at her grandparents’ farms in Bridgeport.

LeVelle is survived by her children, Mark Bond and wife, Lea, Teresa Bond and Linda DeHoff and husband, Gary; grandchildren Kara Bond, Brenna McAllister, Austin Bond, Anthony Wallace and Christopher DeHoff; great-grandchildren Ian McAllister and Quinn McAllister; and brother Carroll Fisher.

Memorial donations may be made to Neighbors Who Care, 10450 East Riggs Road, Ste. 113, Sun Lakes, AZ 85248.
