

Talley, Charles Sean 'Sean' | 1966-2017

Published Wednesday, March 15, 2017

Sean Talley

Charles Sean Talley, known to his loved ones as Sean, died Sunday, March 12, 2017.

Funeral is 10 a.m. Friday, March 17, at the Grace Fellowship Church in Paradise with burial at Sunset Cemetery. Visitation is 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, March 16, at the church.

Sean was born May 23, 1966. Not only will his immediate family be carrying out the legacy he created, but also his infinite amount of "best friends," people from every walk of life. In his 50 years, he served many purposes. He was a role model, counselor, hunter, businessman, coach, father, son, husband, brother and most importantly a child of God. In all of these roles he served as a teacher, always wanting to share what he had learned.

He is survived by his wife, Lisa; three children, Jordan, Tatum and Hayden; his mother, Anne Wylie and husband, Bob; father Charles Talley and wife, Jean; sister, Lisa Groves; step-brothers, Mike and Shayne Talley; his mother-in-law and father-in-law, Geri and Ralph Tuttle; brother-in-law Bill Tuttle and wife, Lori; and many nieces and nephews.