

Wilson, Janis Eileen (Decker) | 1951-2017

Published Saturday, February 25, 2017

Janis Wilson

Janis Eileen Wilson, 65, of Haslet, died Thursday, Feb. 23, 2017, in Haslet.

Graveside service is 1 p.m. Monday, Feb. 27, at Dido Cemetery in Fort Worth with the Rev. Phillip Weitner officiating.

Janis was born April 13, 1951, in Springfield, Ill., to Almeda (Beams) and Charles Decker. She married John (Johnny) Wilson March 2, 1990, in Hurst.

Janis enlisted and served in the United States Navy. Afterwards she worked in the computer industry where she met her husband. After retiring on her 50th birthday, she spent her time traveling, visiting with family and enjoying time with her grandkids.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Janis is survived by her husband of 26 years; daughter Andrea Sarginson and husband, Roger; son Luke Perry and wife, Michelle; stepdaughters Michelle Krogsgaard and husband, Larry, and Rachel Herrera and husband, Paul, grandchildren Tayah, Annabelle, Tucker, Rebecca, Cole, Kelsey, Chelsea, Kilah and PJ; great-grandchildren Brayden, Christian, Kenlie Rae and Taylin.

She is also survived her mother; sisters Bonnie Hunter and husband, Ray, Theresa Scott and husband, Steve, and Tracy Decker; brothers Steve Decker and wife, Nancy, Jeff Decker and wife, Diane, Rodney Decker and Kevin Decker and wife, Ginger; sister-in-heart Nancy Beams Bryant; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members and friends.