

Woodruff, Roy Nathan 'Hollywood' | 1939-2017

Published Saturday, September 23, 2017

Roy Nathan Woodruff

Roy Nathan "Hollywood" Woodruff, 77, of Bridgeport, died Sunday, Sept. 17, 2017, in Bridgeport.

Memorial gathering is 7 p.m. Saturday at his home, 104 Greathouse St., in Bridgeport. Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport is handling arrangements.

Hollywood was born Oct. 24, 1939, in Wyatt, Mo., to John and Mary Bell (Kidd) Woodruff. He married Brenda Malmgren July 31, 1981, in Dyersburg, Tenn. He was a retired truck driver. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Hollywood is survived by his son, Kenneth Woodruff and wife, Barbara, of Paradise; daughters Cheri Hamby and husband, Bob, and Terri Smith and husband, John, all of Licking, Mo., Brandi Woodruff and companion, Austin Sales, of Bridgeport and Traci Woodruff and fianc , J.D. Freeman, of Chico.

Other survivors include seven grandchildren; nine great-great-grandchildren; brother Tommy Woodruff and wife, Sandy, of Bardwell, Ky.; family friend Teddy Morales of Bridgeport; sisters Cynthia Mosier and Phyllis Wright, both of Bardwell; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.