

Fortenberry, David Guinn_ | 1957-2018

Published Saturday, October 26, 2018

David Guinn Fortenberry

David Guinn Fortenberry, 61, of Arcadia, Okla., died Thursday, Oct. 25, 2018, in Arcadia, after a battle with cancer.

Celebration of life is 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 27 at New Hope Church of Christ in Edmond, Okla.

David was born Oct. 21, 1957, in Decatur to Ansel and Mary Nell Fortenberry. David was an elder at New Hope Church of Christ and was an avid outdoorsman. He was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Archers. David graduated from Decatur High School and graduated from Texas A&M University in 1981. He had a career in drilling and engineering at Mitchell Energy and Devon Energy.

He is preceded in death by wife, Shirley Fortenberry; and his father.

He is survived by his wife, Rhonda Fortenberry; children Lauren Fortenberry, Emily Fortenberry and Josie Fortenberry; stepchildren Justin Prindle and wife, Krista, Joshua Prindle and Jamie Newton and husband, Zach; three grandchildren; siblings Judy Shelley and Philip Fortenberry; and his mother.

Memorial donations may be made to "Missions Fund" in care of New Hope Church of Christ.