Sallie Suzanne (Reed) Clark, 78, formerly of Runaway Bay, passed away peacefully Nov. 22, 2019, in Richland Hills after battling breast cancer.

Celebration of life will be 10 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 7, at Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel in Bridgeport.

Sallie was born June 8, 1941, to Milton Carrol and Edna Roberta (Zirkle) Reed in Pine Bluff, Ark. She graduated from Pine Bluff High School in 1960 and later relocated to Big Spring. Sallie was united in marriage to Howard D. Clark Sr. for 32 years. They lived in Runaway Bay for 15 years.

She was a Sunday school teacher, substitute teacher and worked at several banks – local and in Fort Worth. Sallie was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and homemaker who enjoyed quilting. She touched many lives with her kindness, leaving an impact on all those around her.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Howard D. Clark Sr.; her son, Kenneth Phillips; her daughter, Anita Clark; her sister, Mary Jo Clark; and her brother, Thomas Reed.

Those left to cherish her memory are her daughters, Amanda Pultz and husband, Jerry, and Paula Yeathermon; her son, H. David Clark Jr. and wife, Anna; her daughter-in-law, Kathie Phillips; her grandchildren, Kelcie and Halie Pultz, Lauren Phillips, Aiden and Liam Clark, Tyler Yeathermon and wife, Lisa, Corey Lewis and husband, Daniel, Paul Southerland and wife, Sam, and Cris Hogan and wife, LaDonna; her great-grandchildren, Seth and Colton Phillips, Prince and Phoenyx Pultz, Garrett and Natalie Southerland, Linnea and Leila Yeathermon and Dean, Evelyn and Eleanor Lewis; her brother, Bill Reed and wife, Patsy; her sister, Alice Hahn; and extended family and numerous friends. The family requests that no flowers be sent and respectfully request for those who desire to honor Sallie's memory send a gift in her name to the American Cancer Society.
