

Deuson, Elizabeth Blessing

1947-2019

By Messenger Staff | Published on November 02, 2019

Elizabeth Blessing Deuson, 72, of Quitman, formerly of Fort Worth, passed away in Quitman Oct. 29, 2019.

A memorial service celebrating her life will be 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 2, in the Liberty United Methodist Church, 2581 TX-154, in Quitman.

Elizabeth was born in Fort Worth Jan. 21, 1947, to John Ellis and Dorothy (McCurdy) Blessing. She was employed as a trainer with Executone. She was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church, and after retirement, she held several part-time jobs that included the Tarantula Steam Train in Fort Worth.

Elizabeth enjoyed volunteering at the church and crafting with family and friends. Her artistic talent was enjoyed by many.

Surviving family includes her husband, Gene Deuson of Quitman; brothers Tommy Blessing and his wife, Glenda and Bubba Blessing and his wife, Sharon; sister Martha Blessing and Dick Burt; and numerous other family members and friends.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Lung Cancer Association.