Russell "Lee" Clack, 55, went home to heaven Dec. 11, 2020.

Lee was born July 5, 1965, in Artesia N.M., to Rusty and Jeanie Clack. He was the youngest of three kids.

Lee was a man of God with incredible faith. He would share his story of redemption with anyone who needed to hear it.

He grew up with an amazing extended family. He loved to tell stories about their adventures.

In 1984, Lee married the love of his life, Frances Bradley Clack. They had three daughters, and later three grandchildren. Lee often said his girls and grandkids were his greatest blessings. He was the happiest when all of his girls and their families were with him.

You could often find Lee on the golf course with one of his sons-in-law or friends. Lee worked in plant operations at Targa for the last 19 years, where he enjoyed sharing his knowledge and experience with his co-workers.

Lee was preceded in death by his mother Jeanie and brother Victor.

He is survived by his wife Frances Clack, daughters Tarran De Leon and husband, Michael, Lindsey Underwood husband, Chance, Ashly Clack-Adams and husband, Mason; father Rusty Clack and wife, Donna; sister Melanie Wilson and husband, Tommy; step-brother Joe Keith Smith and wife, Jennifer; step-sister, Missy Henderson and husband, Eric; grandsons Rusty and Peyton Underwood; granddaughter Charlye Underwood, and numerous nieces and nephews, all who adored him.

Lee was an incredibly kind and compassionate man. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

A memorial will be held at a later date. Honorary pallbearers will be Jeff Bowman, Stacey Bowman, Casey Fuller, Michael Fuller, Rusty Parker, Michael De Leon, Chance Underwood, and Mason Adams.
