

Cartwright, J.G.

1944-2021

By Messenger Staff | Published on September 01, 2021

J.G. Cartwright

Boyd ~ J.G. Cartwright, longtime Boyd High School football coach, passed away on Thursday, Aug. 26, 2021, at the age of 76.

Memorial service is 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 1, at J.G. Cartwright Stadium in Boyd. Mark Autry will officiate.

J.G. was born Sept. 22, 1944, to Vid and Virginia (Harp) Cartwright in Godley. He was united in marriage June of 1994 to Jan Gray in Grapevine. J.G. graduated from North Texas University with a bachelor's degree. He led the Boyd Yellowjackets for 35 years. He was a beloved father, grandfather, brother, coach and friend to many, who will miss him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Vid and Virginia Cartwright; his wife, Jan Cartwright; and sister Jenny Sue Robinson.

Those left behind to cherish his memory are his daughter, Christy Cartwright of Roanoke; his three sons, Robby Cartwright and wife, Sara, of Decatur, Chris Kinnaird and wife, Laura, of Denton and their children, and Scott Kinnaird and wife, Jamie, of Omaha, Neb., and their children; five grandchildren, Hayley Myers, Alex Raasch, Colby Raasch, Jett and Cale Cartwright; his brother, Jan Cartwright and wife, Dottie, of Austin; numerous extended family members; and a host of friends.

The family requests, in lieu of flowers, donations to the Boyd Athletic Program in memory of Coach J.G. Cartwright, Yellowjackets Athletic Department, 700 Knox Ave., Boyd, TX 76023.