Bryker Liam Davis, infant son of Morgan and Hannah Davis of Bridgeport, returned to his Heavenly Father on Tuesday, October

Bryker brought joy to his parents, brothers, & all of those who were excitedly awaiting for his arrival from the time Hannah found out she was carrying him. He was going to be their rainbow baby after losing a child to miscarriage in December of 2020. He was an answer to prayer and was so very loved. His big brothers loved feeling mommy's tummy when baby Bryker would move. They had big hopes of teaching him how to walk, talk, & play with them. Bryker knew nothing but love and will continue to only know perfect love for all of eternity with Jesus. He will be greatly missed but the reunion in Heaven will be so sweet.

Mommy & daddy & big bubba's love you Bryker Liam. You will never be forgotten our beautiful baby boy.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Amy Tackett.

Those left behind to cherish his precious memory are his parents, Morgan and Hannah (Tackett) Davis of Bridgeport; his brothers, River, Kooper, and Ledger Davis; his grandparents, Chris Tackett of Paradise and Rick and Kristi Davis of Paradise; his great-grandparents, Jim and Nelda Tackett of Paradise, Viola Reynolds of Springtown, Claud and Velda Davis of Euless, and Claude and Glenda Jessup of Cisco; his uncle, Chase Tackett and wife Shay of Ft. Worth; his aunt, Allye Harrell and Troy of Tyler; numerous cousins, extended family members and family friends.
