Winston was born July 10, 1931 to Robert and Elizabeth Dennis, in Montague County, Texas. Winston joined the Marine Corp. at 18 and served in the Korean War. He fought in the "Chosin Reservoir", one of the fiercest battles in the Marine Corp's history. He was proud to be a Marine and in the service of his country. He was a lifetime member of "The Chosin Few". Winston returned to Fort Worth from serving several years in the Marines and began work in the auto repair business. Winston rose to becoming Service Manager of Jack Williams Chevrolet and served in that capacity for many years. During this same time, he attended college at night and received a degree for his efforts. After leaving Jack Williams, Winston began teaching auto mechanics at Tarrant County College until his retirement.

He was a devout Christian, pastored at three churches and with his parents traveled North America and several foreign countries sharing his faith. Like his parents, his heavenly rewards will be bountiful for his loyal and faithful service. He attended the Greater Vision Church in Lake Tawakoni, Texas.

He was preceded in death by his parents R.H. and Elizabeth Dennis; his sister Ruth; his daughter Linda; his son Robert;
and his wife Betty.

He is survived by his wife Ann Dennis of Emory, Texas; his sons, Terry Dennis and wife Tracy of Hawkins, Texas, and Winston Dennis, Jr. of Boyd, Texas; and his sisters June and Beth of Fort Worth, Texas. Winston leaves behind a long line of nieces, nephews, grand kids and great-grand kids.

Some people spend an entire lifetime wondering if they made a difference in the world. But the Marines don't have that problem. —Ronald Reagan
