

Dodd, Judith Carroll (Bradley)

1951-2121

By Messenger Staff | Published on April 02, 2021

Judith Carroll Dodd

Judi Carroll Bradley Dodd, age 70, of Carrollton passed away on March 26, 2021. Judi was born Jan. 16, 1951, in Monahans. She was kind, caring and compassionate toward everyone she came in contact with. She deeply loved her children, Lynde and Brad, and family with all of her heart. Judi was known for her smile, beautiful personality and her devotion to helping her family and friends. She enjoyed gardening, collecting and refurbishing antiques and spending time with her family. Judi was preceded in death by her husband, Gordon Dodd. She is survived by her children, Lynde Dodd and husband, Charles, of Denton and Bradley Dodd of Plano; her parents, Mac and Glenda Bradley of Denver City; sisters Judy Stovall and husband, Richard, of College Station, Cecil Mansfield of San Angelo and Betty Montgomery and husband, Tom, of San Angelo; brothers Glenn Bradley and wife, Ana, of Quito, Ecuador and Jim Day and wife, Betty, of Cedar Park; best friend and loving companion, Gilbert Moreno of Carrollton; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Graveside service was April 2 at Leonard Cemetery in Leonard with Rhoton Funeral Home of Carrollton handling arrangements.