A Bowie man was killed in a two-vehicle wreck near Boyd Thursday night. Jarrid Hendon, 33, the driver of a 2014 GMC pickup towing a trailer, died after the truck struck one vehicle then continued off the roadway, colliding with a culvert, fence and tree, said Texas Department of Public Safety spokesperson

Sgt. Ricky Hunter. DPS troopers investigated the crash around 6:35 p.m. Thursday. Hendon was traveling west on Texas 114. Hunter said for an undetermined reason, the truck crossed into the eastbound lane and clipped the left rear of a 2017 Volvo.

The driver of the Volvo, Jamie Wilhelm, 50, and two passengers, all from Springtown, were not injured.
