

Rhine, Glen Albert

1937-2021

By Messenger Staff | Published on December 01, 2021

Decatur ~ Glen Albert Rhine, 84, went to be with our Lord Tuesday, Nov. 23, 2021, in Fort Worth.

Funeral was Nov. 29 at Cornerstone Baptist Church in Decatur with burial at Oaklawn Cemetery. Ron Fox officiated.

Pallbearers included Cody Christian, Jason Jones, Justin Morris, Justin West, Clayton Sappington, Ryan Elder, Dustin Smalley and Matt Melton.

Glen was born Sept. 30, 1937, to Gene Albert and Grace Marie (Parrish) Rhine in Decatur. He was united in marriage Oct. 20, 1956, to Barbara Ann Green in Gainesville. Glen was a graduate of Decatur High School and a dairy farmer in the agriculture industry for many years. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend to many who will miss him dearly. He was preceded in death by his parents, Gene and Marie Rhine; brother T.H. Rhine; and son Russell Glen Rhine.

Those left behind to cherish his memory are his wife of 65 years, Barbara Ann Rhine of Decatur; his daughters, Keitha Morris and husband, Tim, of Decatur, and Jamye

Melton of Decatur; his grandchildren, Cody Christian and wife, Julie, Carley Jones and husband, Jason, Justin Morris and wife, Katie, and Kayla West and husband, Justin, all of Decatur, Ashley Smalley and husband, Dustin, and Matt Melton, all of Bridgeport; his great-grandchildren, Riley and Reese Christian, Macey and Kenley Jones, Easton and Emmy Morris, Brody and Jady Kelley, Layne and Landon West and Aubrey and Linzi Smalley; his brother, Dan Rhine of Decatur; his sister, Bobbie Owens of Sanger; extended family members; and a host of friends.

Hawkins Funeral Home