Leonard was born on April 27, 1933 to Hurston P. and Ruth M. (Redwine) Denney. He was united in marriage to Angela M. Smith on March 8, 1997 in Chico. Leonard learned to be a hard worker from an early age as the son of a farmer. Leonard was a veteran and served our Country in the United States Army including 1 year, 1 month, and 17 days overseas in Japan, Korea and Hawaii. After his service he worked for General Dynamics as a machinist from 1956-1959, then he worked at Gifford Hill and was Maintenance Foreman from 1959-1975, He owned and operated Denney's Exxon Station from 1975-1981 in Chico. From there Leonard worked as a Repairman and heavy equipment operator for Chapman Engineering in Houston. It was around 1982 he began his career in law enforcement upon graduating from North Central Texas Regional Police Academy in Arlington. Leonard retired as constable for Wise County Sheriff's Office after many years of service. His law enforcement career was impressive first with Bridgeport Police Department as Police Chief from 1984-1987 and then with the Wise County Sheriff's Office as a Deputy and Investigator. Leonard was our Wise County Constable for many years thereafter, his service with our County spanned almost 40 years. His commitment to serve his fellow officers and residents of Wise County was second to none. Leonard was a Corporal in the United States Army; a 32 Degree Mason and a member of Chico Masonic Lodge No. 508, a member of Decatur Lodge No. 447, Alvord Chapter & Council; Eastern Star; VFW; Fort Worth Scottish Rite; and Elder at Zion Valley Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He loved his family, friends, children, and especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and enjoyed spending time with them all.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Alva Dean Dodd; his brother, Melvin Denney, who passed at birth; and his brother, Harold Denney.

Those left behind to cherish his memory are wife of 24 years, Angela Denney of Chico; his daughter Peggy Denney Ainsworth and husband Rodney of Bryson; his son, Bobby Denney of Bowie; his step-children, Maria Bishop and husband Daniel of Florida, Tanya Hanks and husband Jon of Nevada, and Ronnie Gerhart, Jr. of Chico; his grandchildren, Lindsay Michaelis, Stephanie Bradley Miller and husband, Derek, Jessica Lynn Turner and husband Barry; Leslie Robbins, Coltan Denney, Raylon Hailey, Dameon Johnson and wife Sarah, Alana Crockett, Marina Crockett, Gabriel Gerhart, Florence Hart, Rita Hart, Atlas Gerhart, and Kayson Gerhart; 4 great-grandchildren; numerous extended family members; a host of friends and law enforcement family.
