Bridgeport ~ Frances JoLu (McPherson) Jordan, 88, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, Jan. 1, 2022, in Cottage Grove, Wis.

Funeral service will be 3 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 9 at Pleasant View Baptist Church in Bridgeport with burial in Paradise Cemetery. Family will receive friends 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday at Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport.

Frances was born Feb. 26, 1933, to Raymond and Estella (Bunnell) McPherson in Decatur. She grew up in Paradise and graduated in the Paradise High School Class of 1951. Frances knew she wanted to be a teacher after substituting in a grade school class one day while a senior in high school. She was a third-grade teacher at Bridgeport Elementary for many years and taught several generations of students throughout Bridgeport Independent School District. She met the love of her life and was united in marriage on Aug. 6, 1960, to Gerald Jordan in Paradise, who has since gone on to be with the Lord. Frances loved spending time with her grandchildren, great-granddaughter, nieces, nephews and her many cousins. She looked forward to the yearly Bunnell Family Reunion and meeting up with classmates from school. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and her brother, Edwin McPherson.

Those left behind to cherish her memory are her son, John and his wife, Tammy Jordan, of Bridgeport; her daughter, Jodie and her husband, Javier Castaneda, of Cottage Grove, Wis.; her grandchildren, Cason and wife, Nicole Jordan, of Paradise, Mason and wife, Stachia Jordan, of Boyd, Alex Castaneda of Worcester, Mass., Cassandra, Elizabeth, and Gabriella Castaneda all of Cottage Grove, Wis., Halee and Colton Klyce of Bridgeport; her great-granddaughter, Palmer Jordan; her brother, Robert McPherson and wife, Linda, of Edmond, Okla.; numerous extended family members and a host of friends.
