Robert Christopher Pratt, 58, left us with a large collection of firetrucks and Matchbox toys when pancreatic cancer had the nerve to take his life Oct. 12, 2022.

Robert was born in Fort Worth to Donald Pratt Sr. and Kathryn Pratt, Nov. 29, 1963.

He was married to Sarah Pratt (nee' Statzer) Oct. 5, 2014. Together they shared three pretty great children; James Newbaker (23), Emma Newbaker (20), and Brooke Pratt (10).

Robert served his community faithfully as a volunteer firefighter since he was 16 years old. He served both the Newark and Rhome communities.

Robert was previously the fire chief in Rhome Fire Department for several years.

He worked for Rural Metro Ambulance and then started his career at Carter Bloodcare, where he worked for several years. Robert spent most of his life in Aurora, and was known and loved by many.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Donald Pratt Sr. and Kathryn Pratt; his grandparents; and most recently Queen Elizabeth II.

Robert is survived by his wife, Sarah Pratt; children, James Newbaker, Emma Newbaker and Brooke Pratt; his nieces, Kathryn Wacasey, Karri Wacasey, Jacquelin Wilson and her children, Nathan Wilson, Olivia Wilson and Allison Wilson; his brother, Donald Pratt Jr.; his sister, Joanna Hilterbran; many cousins and other dear family members. Robert also left behind many pets he didn't want but always tolerated.

Memorial services for Robert Christopher Pratt will be held Oct. 28, 2022, at Deer Cove in Azle, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.
