Alma Jaunell Quick, 93, of Bowie, went home to be with the Lord Thursday, Sept. 29, 2022.

Funeral services will take place with Powell Funeral Home in South Boston, Va., next week, followed by burial at the Oakland Cemetery in Scottsburg, Va.

Alma was born April 7, 1929, in Wirt, Okla., to William and Dora Pollard. She was a graduate of Dundee High School in Oklahoma. Alma married Raymond Albert Quick April 30, 1950, in Pauls Valley, Okla. She was a pastor's wife until Raymond's death April 14, 1998, but continued to serve the Lord faithfully.

Alma had a loving heart and sense of humor that will be missed by everyone who knew her.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Raymond Quick; eldest son, Ray Quick; and her four brothers and sisters.

Alma is survived by her son, Mark Elliott Quick of Oklahoma City, Okla.; daughter, Gayonne Beavers and husband, Shane, of Bowie; two grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.
