Donald C. Drain, originally of Aurora, went to be with the Lord in Elizabeth, Arkansas.

Donald was born April 12, 1940, to Edward and Lucille Drain. He was proud of his service to the country and served in the U.S. Army. He enjoyed his many motorcycle road trips to Sturgis with his son and grandson. It is easy to say that he loved and enjoyed the daily sunrises and sunsets from his porches in Aurora.

Donald is preceded in death by his parents, Edward and Lucille Drain, and his beloved dog, Chica.

Survived by his beloved dog, Sunny; son, Kelly Harris; grandson, Hayden Harris and wife, Candace; grandson, Blake and wife, Farren Harris; great-grandsons, Brooks and Beckett; daughter, Christie Drain Osteen and husband, Scott; granddaughters, Tessa Osteen and Raelyn Rohman and her husband, Chaz; great-grandsons, Haegen and Swayde Rohman, all of Springtown. He is also survived by many cousins.

A private family service will be held at a later date.
