

Carow, Jessica Marie
April 2, 1976 — November 15, 2024

A private service for Jessica Carow, 48, of Alvord, Texas, will be held at a later date. Jessica Marie Carow was born on April 2, 1976, in New Brunswick, New Jersey, to Charlie and Judy Carow, and peacefully passed away on November 15, 2024. She was a cherished individual who dedicated over 15 years of her career to working with American Airlines. Her love for travel continued as she spent two-and-a-half years with Amusements of America, exploring new places and meeting new people.

Beyond her career, Jessica had a zest for life. She cherished the simple joys of fishing, reading, and spending time at the beach. Her love for exploration and adventure was evident in the way she embraced each day.

Jessica will be remembered for her warm spirit and the happiness she brought to those around her. Her legacy is one of joy, adventure, and a deep appreciation for the beauty of life. She will be missed by all who knew her.

Jessica is preceded in death by her grandparents, Ralph and Josephine Lindauer.

Those left to cherish Jessica's memory are the love of her life, and life partner, Mindy Keller of Alvord, Texas; parents, Charlie and Judy Carow of Metuchen, New Jersey; sister, Lizzie Carow of Ohio; mother-in-law, Barbie Keller of Bridgeport, Texas; father-in-law, Richard Keller of Alvord, Texas; and numerous extended family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks for donations to be made to the Leukemia Society on Jessica's behalf.
