Anna Lois Popejoy Crownover, 84, born on July 30, 1940, in Decatur, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her loving family on Sunday, Sept. 29, 2024. She was the daughter of AB and Veda Bell Crownover and grew up alongside her two siblings, David Earl, who passed in 2016, and Nita Jan Allen.

Anna was the proud mother of five children: Russell, who passed in 1995, Dee Anna, Elizabeth, Victoria, and Margaret, who survive her. In her early years, Anne worked in various jobs, including as a Licensed Vocational Nurse (LVN). She later devoted over 30 years to General Dynamics, which later became Lockheed Martin, where she was known for her dedication and strong work ethic. She was also a long time resident of Boyd.

As a devoted grandmother, “Grandma Anna” cherished her many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, always making them feel deeply loved. Anne had a passion for traveling across the U.S. and enjoyed the art of genealogy, successfully tracing her family’s lineage back through many generations.

She is survived by her daughters, Dee Anna Surginer, Elizabeth Miller, Victoria McCall, and Margaret Marts, along with her cherished grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and her beloved sister, Nita Jan Allen. Anna will be remembered for her deep love of family, adventurous spirit, and dedication to preserving her family’s history.

A service celebrating Anna’s life will be held at New Frontier Cowboy Church on Saturday, Oct 19, at 1 p.m., with a graveside burial to follow at Garvin Cemetery. Address: 354 County Road 4690, Boyd TX 76023
